

CCCAN SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIPS – DAY 6 PRELIMINARIES

Four Jamaicans advanced to the finals on day 6, the last day of competition, at the CCCAN Championships in Puerto Rico. Kendese Nangle is seeded third in the 15-17 girls 50m butterfly final with a time of 29.93 and she will return later to contest the 15-17 girls 100m backstroke as the fourth seed with a time of 1:10.14. Timothy Wynter and Sidrell Williams both qualified for the 13-14 boys 50m butterfly; Timothy as the fifth seed with 27.09 and Sidrell (27.44) seeded eighth. The other finalist tonight is Kevaughn Campbell in the 13-14 boys breaststroke, seeded eighth with a time of 32.68.

The other swimmers this morning were Breanna Roman in the 15-17 girls 50m butterfly (31.92), Matthew Chen in the 15-17 boys 50m butterfly (27.31 – a new personal best time), Sidrell Williams in the 13-14 boys 50m breaststroke (33.30), Antoine Young in the 13-14 boys 400m individual medley (5:15.21) and Dominic Walter (2:16.29) in the 18 & over boys 200m butterfly.

The team returns to the island tomorrow.

July 2, 2011