

HAT TRICK OF RECORDS FOR JAMAICAN SWIMMING

June 26 , 27,28 were great days for Jamaican swimming as three senior national records fell.

2013 CARIFTA standout Zara Bailey representing City of Peterborough started the assault on the record books. Swimming in the heats of the 400 IM Zara lowered her own record to an impressive 4:53.62 in the heats of the British Gas Swimming World Championships Trials.

Comeback King Masai Zebe Chaka continued upon the great work of Zara by smashing his 50 butterfly record which he set in Kingston in May at the Neville Alexander meet. Thirty three year old Masai shattered his old mark of 25.53 and set a new standard of 25.32. Zebe Chaka represented Plymouth Leander club of Olympic 100 metre breaststroke champion Ruta Meilutytė at the meet in Sheffield.

Distance star Dominic Walter completed the trifecta of records with his record swim of 4:09.78 . Dominic set the new standard at the Canada Cup in Montreal Canada representing Golden Horseshoe. That time erased his old mark of 4:10.53 set last year at Caribbean Swimming Islands Championships in Aruba. Walter holds the senior national records for Jamaica in the 400,800 and 1500 metre freestyle events
