Film Title: Alia: Darling of the Pool--The Alia Atkinson Story

Director: Donald Oliver

Duration: 1hr. 10mins

Rating: G

Time: 8:30pm

Synopsis: Alia: Darling of the Pool is an emotional documentary highlighting the growth and maturity, the adversities and triumphs of Jamaica's premier swimmer Alia Atkinson. The film, narrated by CVM's Sports Reporter Donald Oliver gives various perspectives of Alia's life, from her childhood days, through to her college years at Texas A&M to her Olympic experiences especially in London 2012, as well as of course, her world record swim at the World Short Course championships in Doha. It's a tale of love, loss and family as well as Alia's insatiable appetite to put Jamaican swimming on the world map. Alia's story behind her glory is a moving tribute, relatable to all who try to make it in the sun.
